Robert G. Porter Scholarship

The Illinois Federation of Teachers established the Robert G. Porter Scholarship to honor the late Illinois educator, union activist and Secretary-Treasurer of the American Federation of Teachers.

Porter spent his early years in education as a civics teacher in East St. Louis, Illinois. He served as treasurer of the East St. Louis Federation of Teachers, Local 1220. In 1960, Porter became the aide to AFT President Carl Megel at the union's national headquarters, which was then located in Chicago. Porter was instrumental in chartering many AFT locals in Illinois, building the foundation for the strong IFT that today represents more than 100,000 men and women.

Porter served as AFT Secretary-Treasurer from 1963 until his death in November 1991. The AFT grew from 50,000 members to nearly 800,000 during his 28 years as Secretary-Treasurer. For many IFT members, Bob Porter was "Mr. AFT." To honor his lifelong commitment to education and to the labor movement, the Illinois Federation of Teachers established this scholarship in his name.
